PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

Dear Colleagues,

On behalf of California Court Reporters Association (CCRA), I am proud to present our 109th Annual Convention! Themed The Power of Our Past, the Force of Our Future, the annual meeting will be held at the San Mateo Marriott hotel, October 11-14, 2019. Join colleagues from across the state for what is sure to be a high-quality educational experience.

CCRA is California's largest association representing ALL reporters and one of the largest state associations in the country. CCRA's membership includes a wide range of professionals representing California's courtrooms, freelance reporters, deposition firms, CART, captioners, schools, and legal organizations.

This convention is the premier educational and networking event for reporters throughout California in addition to other states, drawing hundreds of attendees each year.

California has the largest court system in our country. The reality is what happens to our profession in California affects the court reporting profession around the country. CCRA is fighting hard to keep the profession of court reporting viable and alive. Your support of CCRA makes it possible for us to employ an experienced lobbying firm who tracks and proposes legislation as well as advocates on behalf of our profession.

Don't miss out on this exciting convention. I look forward to seeing you in October.

Sincerely,

Rachel N. Barkume, CCRA President
